

Please do not weaken Indiana's law against allowing telemarketers to call me. The reduction in telemarketing calls since Atty. Gen. Carter has taken office has been nothing short of miraculous. Please don't cut his legs out from under him, and please don't turn back Indiana's clock to the horrible old days.